Treasurer's Report-Julie Parker: Treasurer's Report was presented and reviewed. Approved-Cindy Schoeber. Seconded-Kathleen Marricco.

New Business:

Membership/Directory: Currently have 276 members. Cindy to do final layout of directory and get 2 quotes for printing. Huge thank you to Cindy for organizing and managing enrollment and directory.

Restaurant nights: Thank you to Stack'd-made $1,353 with earning 20% of 1 day sales and $5/Peebles specialty shake for the week. They enjoyed having us and invited us back. Future restaurant night possibilities: Chick-fil-A and Five Guys at Ross Park, or Jason's Deli.

Silver Graphics: Orders due Nov. 15th. Google form will be sent out for gifts or fragile items to arrange pick-up options. Thank you Tracy Morey for organizing.

Clothing/Toy Drive: Thank you to Kathleen Marricco for organizing. PTA has made $80 already. There are currently 10 boxes sent off to Schoola. Continue to drop off toys and clothing for donations to the PTA.

Box Tops: Sarah Hall will organize in the Spring. Next Box Top due date is in early March.

New Laptop for PTA: Current laptop almost 10 yrs old. We need a functional computer to keep PTA running and organized, especially the finances. Voted with a quorum (approximately 15 voting yes) to spend up to $600 on a new laptop. Options to consider: Dell refurbished, contacting Microsoft for PTA discount, and shopping Black Friday sales.

Monetary Donations for Additional Staff Gifts: Will be sending out communication to request donations toward non-homeroom teachers who still have daily impact on our children (raised over $600 last year for gifts).

SPLC: Daphne Aglietti and Elizabeth Warner. Ongoing discussion regarding start times and grade weighting. Video from presentation last week should be archived on district website. School calendar released for next year. EAC: no meeting since last PTA meeting.

NASEPNG: Jamie Karlovits. Discussed how to maintain a healthy marriage and relationships with siblings in families with special needs children. The movie "Wonder" is a great vehicle for discussions about children with special needs.

Administrative: Peebles was voted as a Distinguished National Title School. Mrs. Bjalobok and Mrs. Dinger will be accepting the award. Can visit PVAS website to see rankings for Peebles.
